SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The magazine entitled Australian Playboy September 1996 is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The magazine features photographs of single females in various stages of undress, mostly with full body and breast nudity. The poses of the models are suggestive of sexual activity. The remainder of the magazine comprises advertisements, short items aimed at entertaining, sexual advice, articles some of which are of a non sexual nature aimed at a male reader, interviews (not sexually explicit), stories of a sexual nature but not sexually explicit, and cartoons and jokes generally of a sexual nature. Because of the level of female nudity and other sexually explicit material in the magazine presented in a manner intended to sexually arouse, the availability of the publication is likely to be injurious to the public good unless restricted to an adult audience.
